Chapter 13

Vanessa D. Campbell, Debtor Vanessa D. Campbell, Plaintiff vs. Americas Servicing Company, and Bank of America National Association as Successor by Merger to LaSalle Bank National Association, as Trustee for Morgan Stanley Mortgage Loan Trusts 2006-6AR, DOE Corporations I through X; and ROE ENTITIES XI through XX, Defendants.

Defendants' Opposition to Plaintiff's Emergency Motion for Preliminary Injunction

COMES NOW, Defendants, by and through counsel, and file this opposition stating as follows:

1. Undisputed Facts

The facts of this case are not in dispute. This Court need only apply the current law concerning the effect of multiple bankruptcies being filed on a pending foreclosure.

The initial foreclosure sale was set for May 1, 2009, but this Plaintiff filed her first bankruptcy case, that same day, thereby staying any sale. Case No. 09-16968 here in the Las Vegas valley.

Pursuant to both state and federal law, the foreclosure sale was orally postponed to July 1, 2009. (See "Certificate of Postponement" attached hereto as exhibit "A"). This practice is very common to preserve a foreclosure sale when a bankruptcy is filed to see if the debtor properly complies with bankruptcy procedure.

The Plaintiff's first bankruptcy case was dismissed on June 25, 2009, thereby ending any automatic stay or protection from bankruptcy.

The foreclosure sale was held on July 1, 2009, extinguishing Plaintiff's rights to the subject property. Attached is a copy of the Trustee's Deed Upon Sale as exhibit "B").

The Plaintiff filed her second bankruptcy on July 7, 2009, case number 09-21995, resulting in a temporary stay for thirty (30) days and she did not file a motion to extend the stay during this period.

The subject property was initially reported as vacant when eviction proceedings were initiated but Defendants later learned that was not the case. An unlawful detainer action was filed in the Justice Court Las Vegas Township on December 2, 2009, seeking a writ of restitution. Case 09C-047327.

Finally on January 21, 2010, the Las Vegas Justice Court held the unlawful detainer hearing, listened to the parties' arguments, and ordered that a writ issue to evict the Plaintiff from the subject premises. However, the justice court judge stayed the execution of the writ until February 20, 2010.

2. Law and Argument

The standard for a preliminary injunction is outlined in Rule 65 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, which Bankruptcy Rule 7065 makes applicable in adversary proceedings. The Rule is clear that a party seeking an injunction must meet all of the elements.

Ordinarily, a plaintiff seeking a preliminary injunction must demonstrate that it is "[1] likely to succeed on the merits, [2] that he is likely to suffer irreparable harm in the absence of preliminary relief, [3] that the balance of equities tips in his favor, and [4] that an injunction is in the public interest.

Am. Trucking Ass'ns v. City of Los Angeles, 559 F.3d 1046, 1052 (9th Cir. 2009)

The Plaintiff cannot succeed on the allegations contained in her complaint. She mistakenly asserts in paragraph eight (8) of the complaint that once a foreclosure sale is stayed by a bankruptcy filing, a debtor must be given a subsequent notice of twenty-one (21) days pursuant to NRS 107.080.

A review of that statute clearly shows that there does not exist such a requirement. In fact, for a long time, Nevada law has allowed for oral postponements of a foreclosure sale.

> Ordinarily where, in the first instance, notice of sale has been given by publication and posting as required by statute, postponements may lawfully be made by oral public proclamation only

McLaughlin v. Mutual Building & Loan Ass'n of Las Vegas. 57 Nev. 181, 60 P.2d 272 (Nev. 1936). It is interesting to note that the sale in McLaughlin was orally postponed over thirty (30) times.

The Nevada legislature recently placed a limit on the number of times a foreclosure can be orally postponed to three (3). Once a creditor reaches this number, it must proceed with another Notice of Sale. The statute reads:

Oral postponement of sale.

- 1. If a sale of property pursuant to NRS 107.080 is postponed by oral proclamation, the sale must be postponed to a later date at the same time and location.
- 2. If such a sale has been postponed by oral proclamation three times, any new sale information must be provided by notice as provided in NRS 107.080.

See NRS 107.082.

Furthermore, the Ninth Circuit has properly recognized that the continuance of a trustee's sale is not a violation of the automatic stay. See generally, First Nat'l Bank of Anchorage v. Roach (In re Roach), 660 F.2d 1316 (9th Cir. 1981). It is clear that the Defendants simply followed both State and Federal law in conducting the foreclosure sale.

Finally, because this present case is Plaintiff's second bankruptcy, 11 U.S.C. 362(c)(3)(A) provided for a thirty (30) day stay upon the filing of this second case which expired on August 7, 2009. Subsection (B) of this statute allows a party to file a motion to continue this temporary stay but Plaintiff did not take advantage of this potential relief. As a result, currently there is not an automatic stay prohibiting Defendants from proceeding with the eviction proceedings.
